

HOW TO LAYER JEWELRY

BE BOLD WITH A LOOK THAT PAIRS ALL YOUR FAVORITE PIECES IN ONE PLACE!

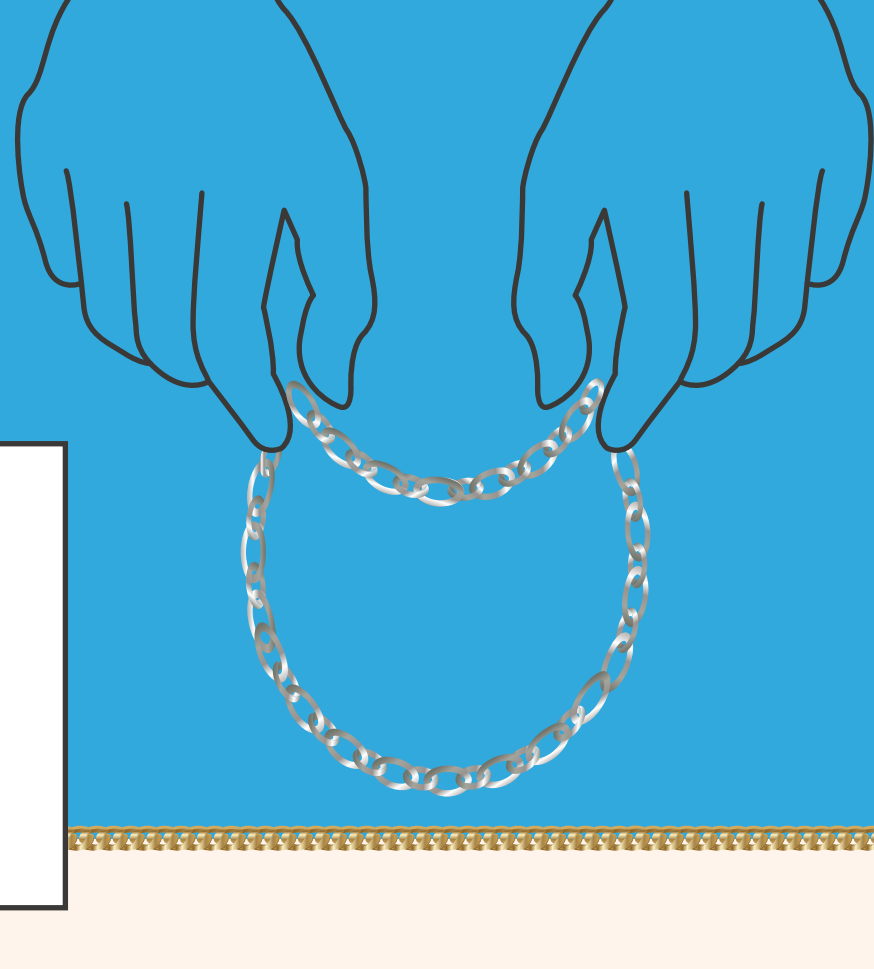

CHECK OUT THIS STYLISH GUIDE ON HOW TO LAYER JEWELRY:

STACKING NECKLACES

THE FIRST NECKLACE YOU CHOOSE SHOULD...

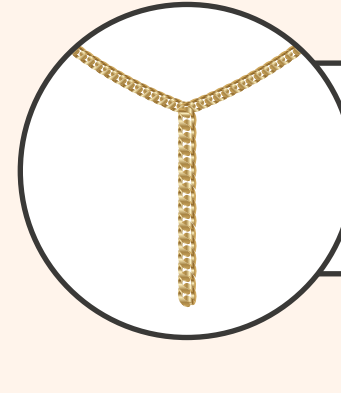

- COMPLEMENT YOUR OUTFIT
- HIT THE STERNUM
(AROUND 12" - 14" LONG CHAIN)
- HELP YOU TO LAYER UP OR LAYER DOWN
- BONUS: IT'S YOUR GO-TO!

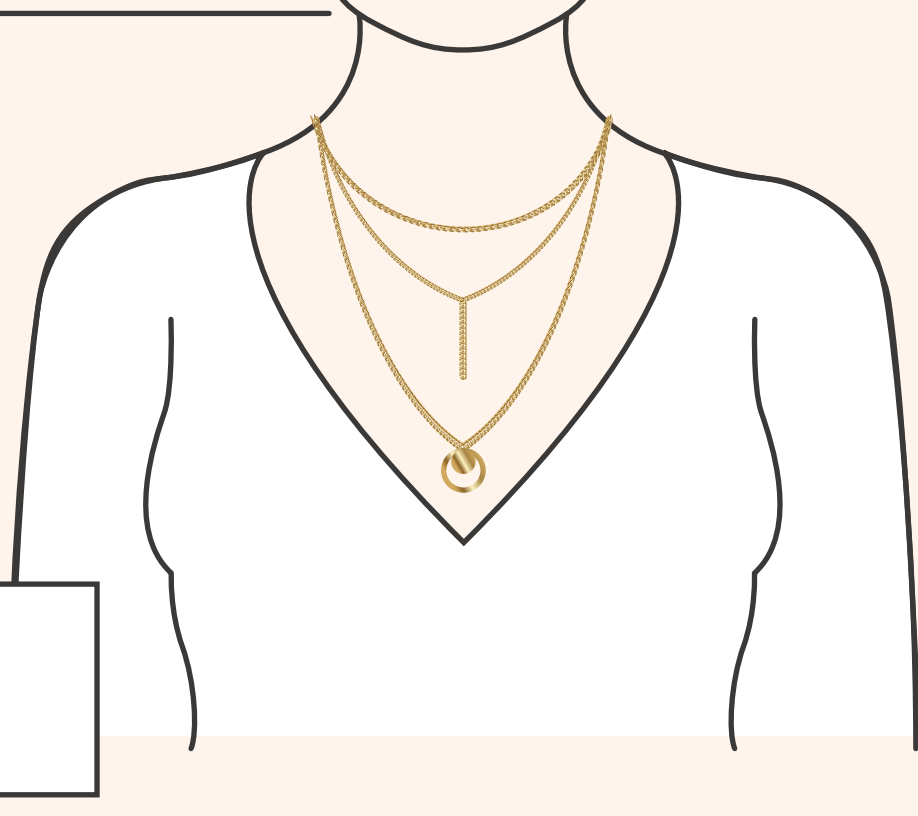

THE COLORBLOCK

Necklaces in the same metal can break up a solid-colored top.

Add charms or pendants to long chains for a pop of sparkle.

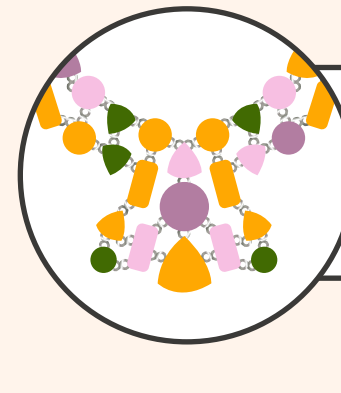

Must-have:
THE LARIAT NECKLACE

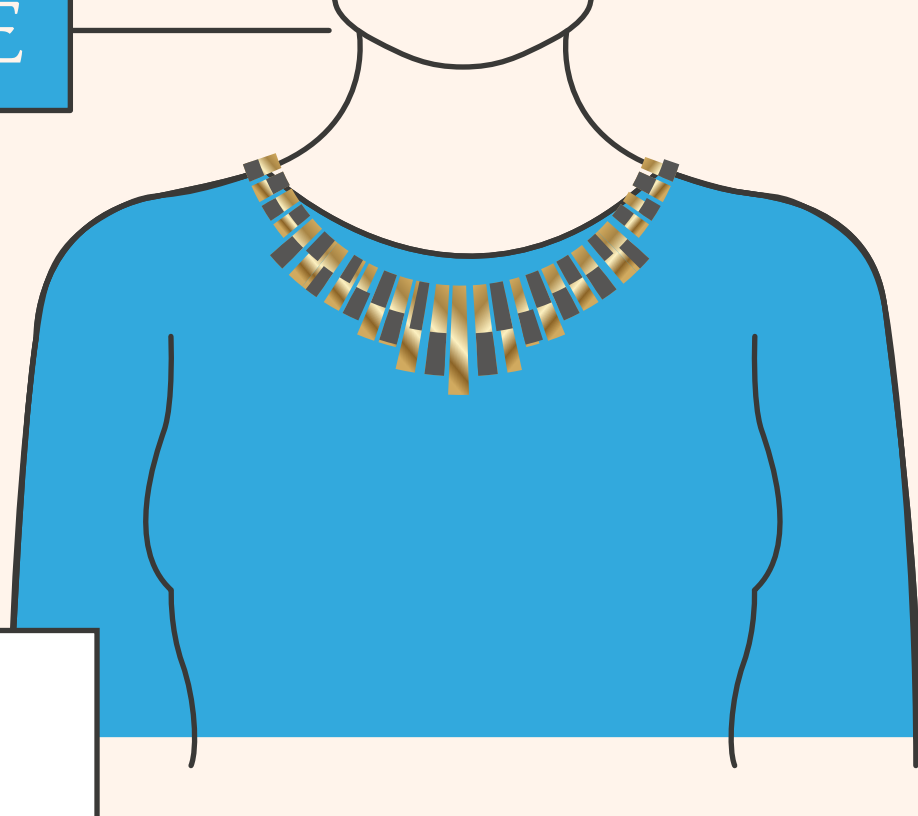

THE STATEMENT PIECE

Love a bold statement piece? Turn your larger necklaces into one statement piece!

Keep the more detail-oriented necklace on top.

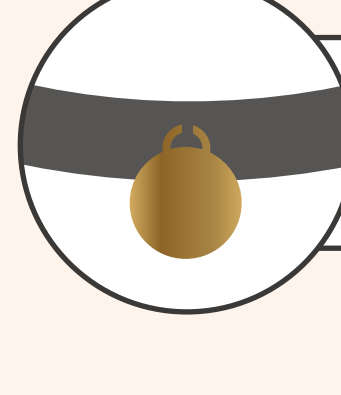

Must-have:
THE BIB NECKLACE

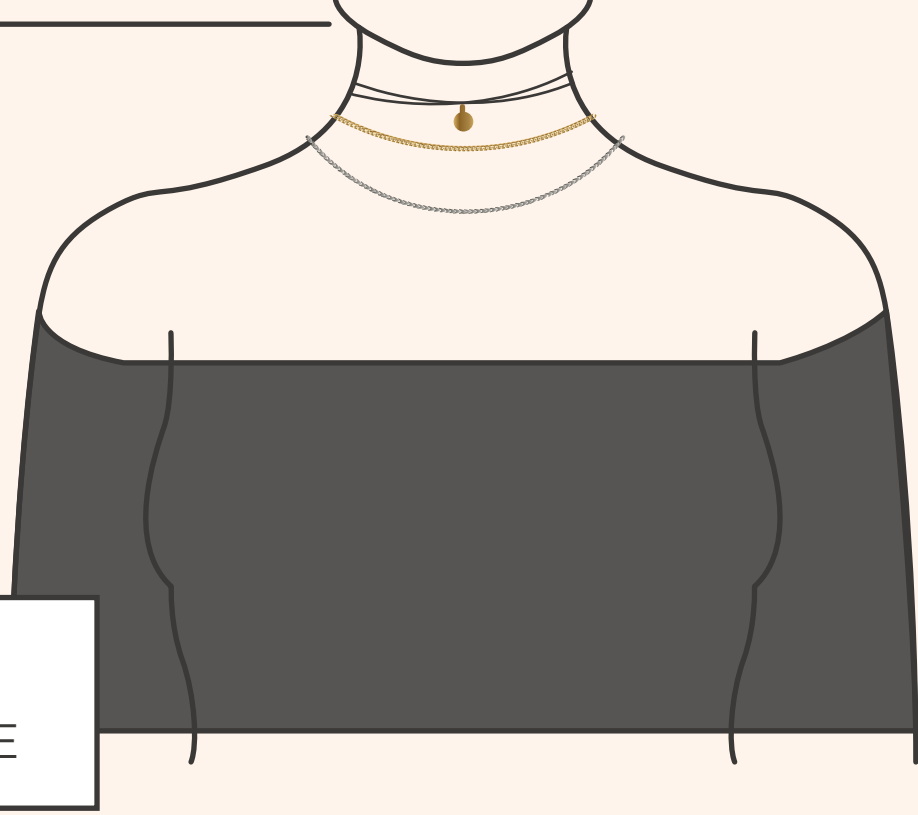

THE HIGH NECK

Layer higher for when you don't want to distract from your neckline.

Mix textures and colors to break up the pattern.

Must-have:
THE CHOKER NECKLACE

BOUNTY OF BRACELETS

BALANCE THE JEWELRY ON YOUR NECK WITH YOUR ARMS!

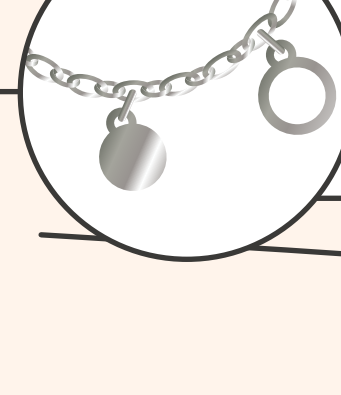

- CHOOSE PIECES WITH THE SAME AESTHETIC AS ALL OF YOUR ACCESSORIES.

- IF STACKING MORE BRACELETS ON THE ARMS, GO DAINY WITH THE NECKLINE.

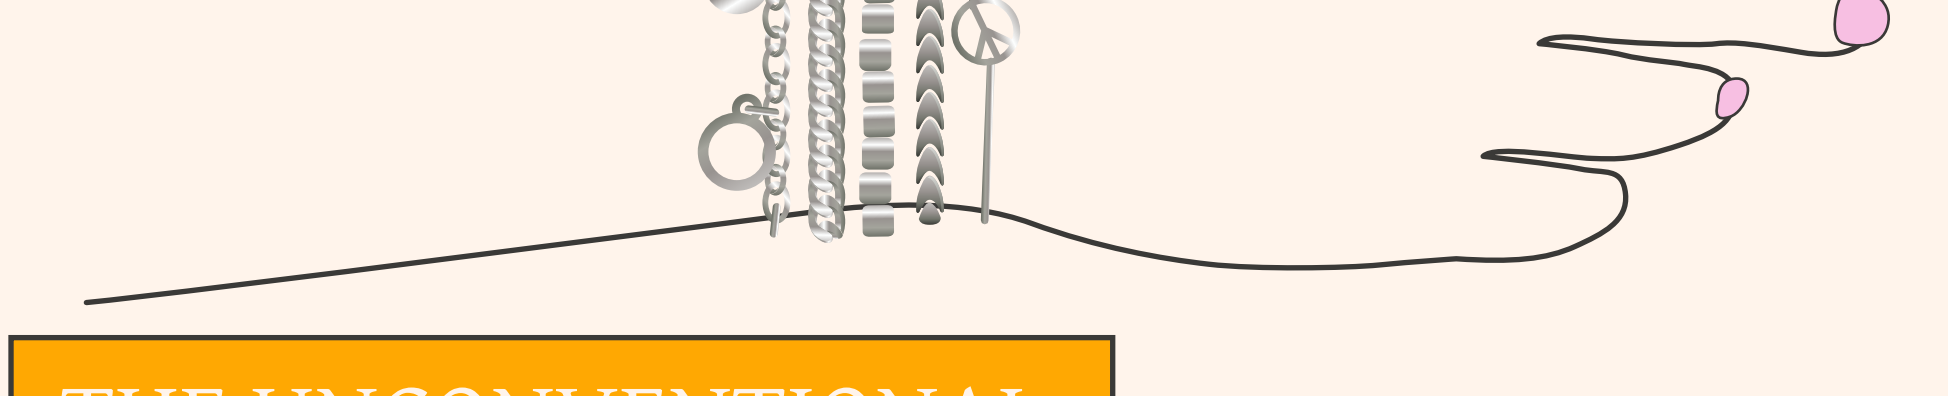

THE ARM PARTY

Bracelets that are all different sizes and textures add dimension to a look.

Use thinner bracelets to keep layering on top of larger widths.

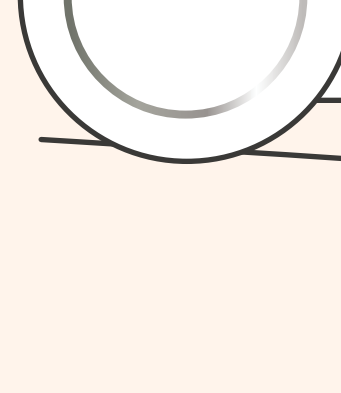

Must have:
THE CHARM BRACELET

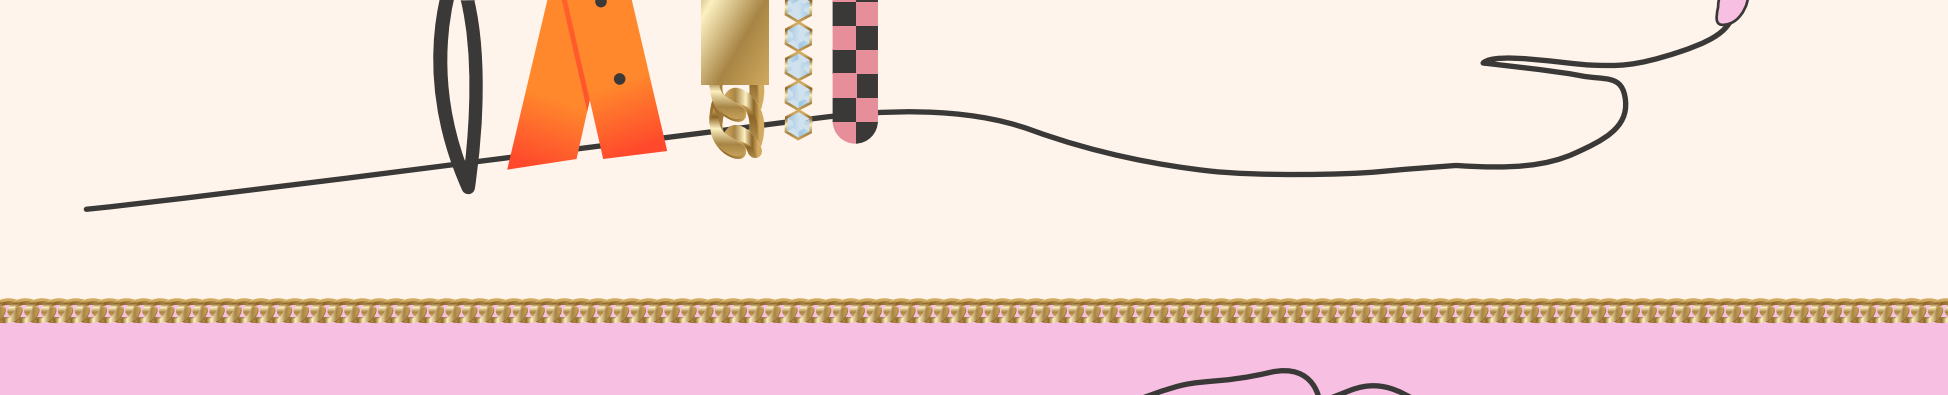

THE UNCONVENTIONAL

Mix metals with unconventional materials like rope, leather, and silk.

Take inspiration of this mix of masculine and feminine look in your outfit!

Must have:
THE BANGLE BRACELET

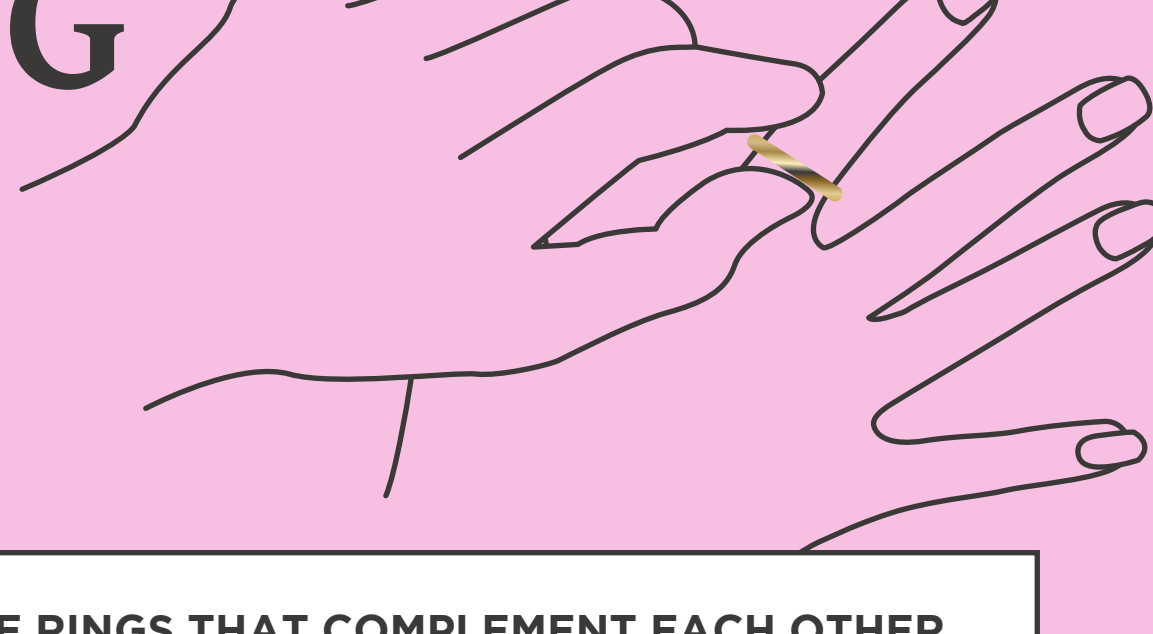

DAZZLING RINGS

TIPS TO GET YOU STARTED...

- SHOP SIMILAR BRANDS TO HAVE RINGS THAT COMPLEMENT EACH OTHER.

- YOU DON'T NEED A RING ON EVERY FINGER (OR EVEN TO MATCH HANDS!)

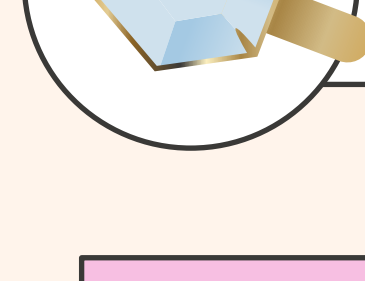

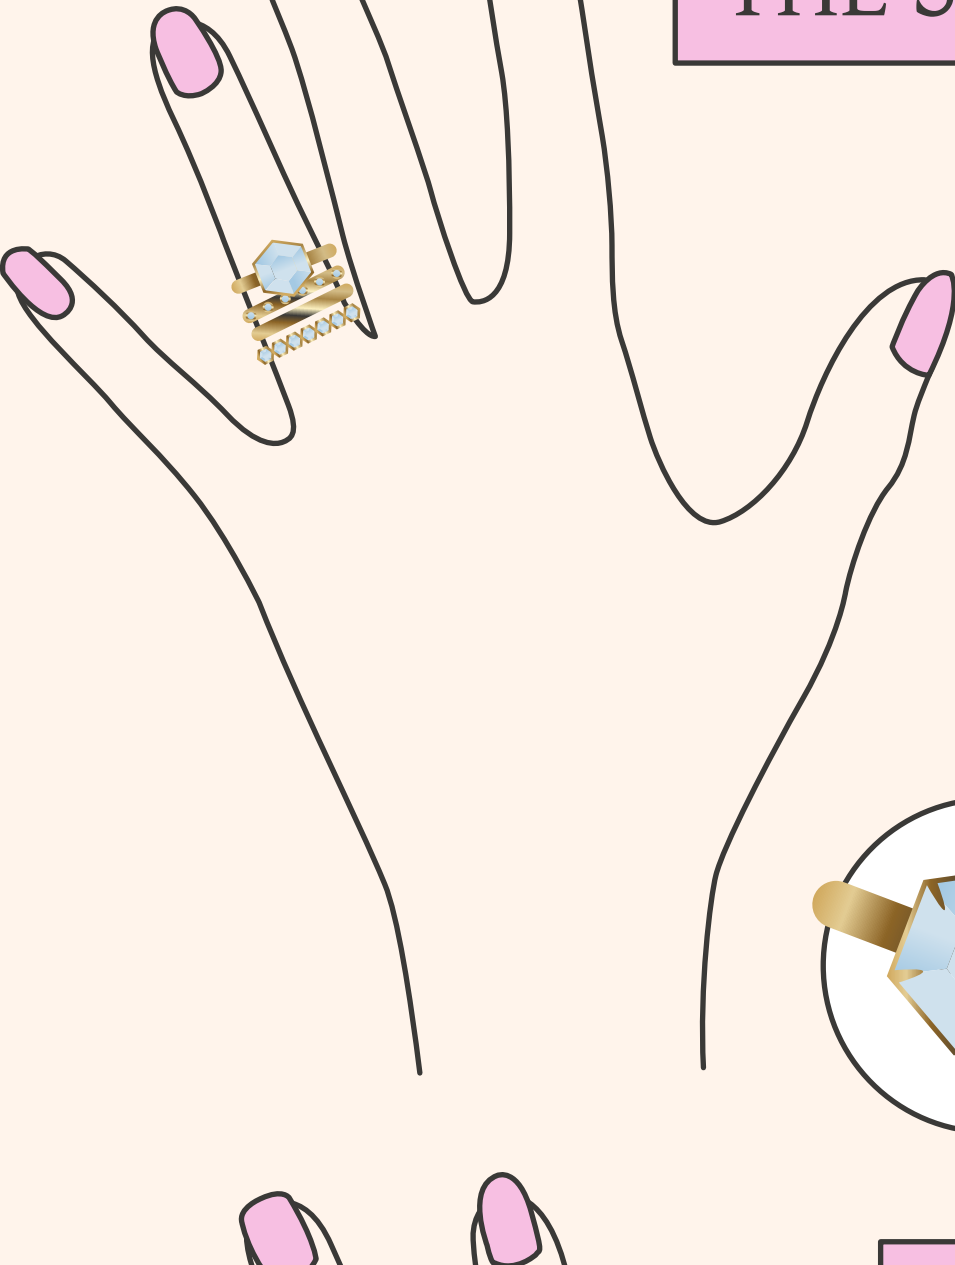

THE STACKED WEDDING SET

Each band added to your set commemorates a new milestone after marriage.

There's no rules about what metals or gems you can mix and match.

Choose thin bands that sit comfortably together and won't overwhelm your finger.

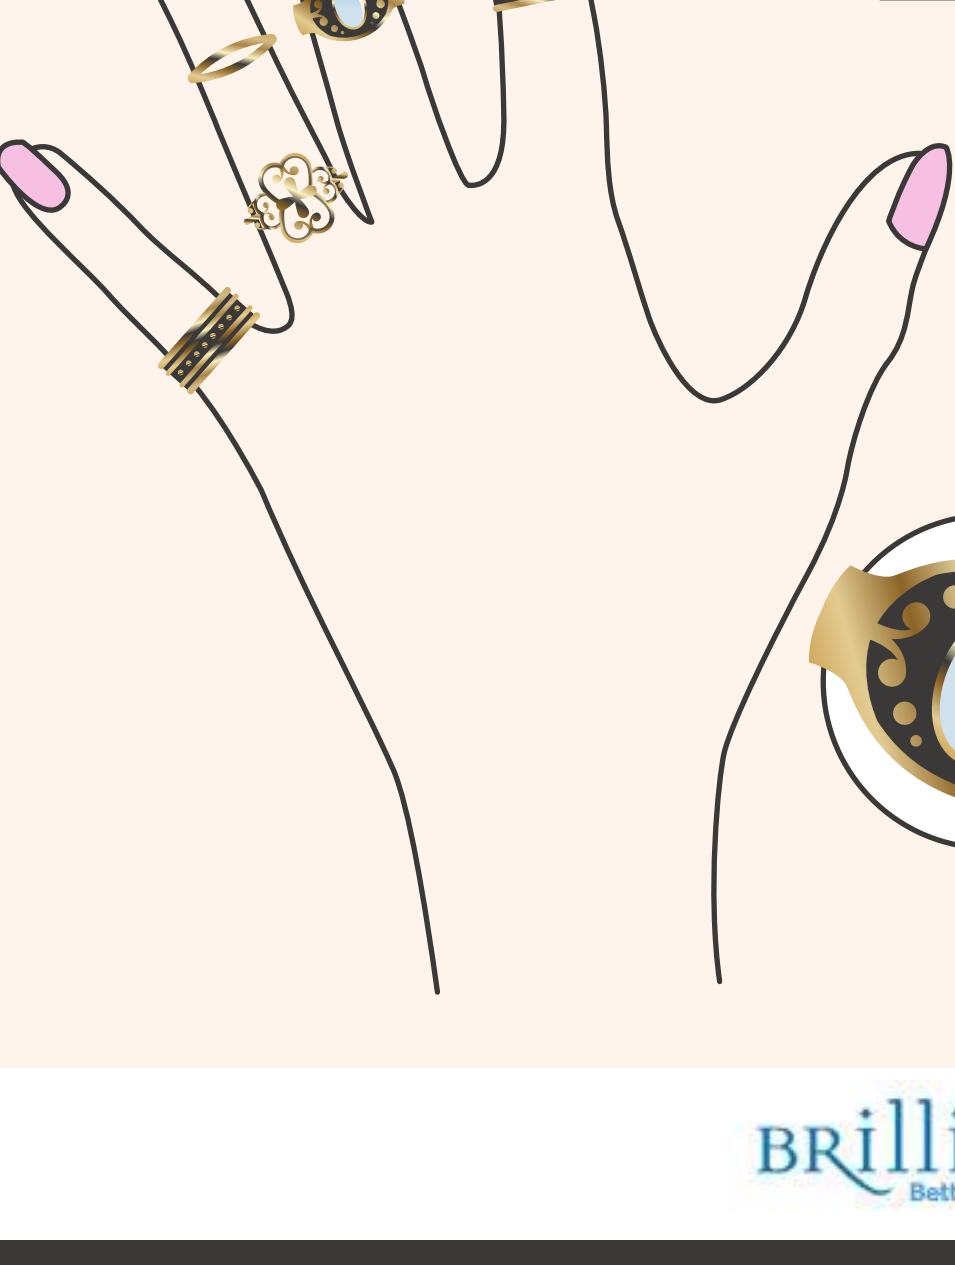

Must have:
THE STAND-OUT SOLITAIRE

THE VINTAGE-INSPIRED

Antique rings are great for layering on different fingers of your hand.

Choose similar metals, but mix it up with colors, texture, and sizing.

Must have:
THE COCKTAIL RING
