DRESS WATCHES

Characterized by a classic look these watches work well with formal attire, but can be worn daily, no matter the event. Their apparent simplicity often makes room for sophistication.

The watches are often worn by men with a suit and by women with an elegant dress. A dress watch will always add value to your outfit and add an element of style without drawing too much attention.

- Simple
- Medium Size
- Elegant colors & design that work well with an elegant outfit
- Sometimes they have precious metals
- Men's bands are made of stainless steel or leather
- Women's bands will usually be bracelet style

SPORTS WATCHES

Designed for movement in every form, sport watches have a dynamic look and superior strength, fit for jumping, running or other exercise. They are a trustworthy helper having more functions and features than dress watches. You'll often find complex stopwatches, alarms and different subdials on them. The armband is usually comfortable, flexible and sturdy.

- Multiple features and functions
- Subdials
- Water resistant and durable
- Cloth, rubber or metal band

DIVER WATCHES

While sport watches and dress watches may be water resistant, diver watches (or marine watches as they are sometimes called) are designed to withstand the high pressures of deep sea diving. They are precise, accurate, with several features and usually easy to read as they need to help the diver.

- Shock resistant and chemical resistant
- Water resistant to at least 100 M
- Strong band so it does not come off accidentally
- Illuminated and easily readable minute markings or hands
- Unidirectional outer rim (bezel) to track the oxygen supply

AVIATOR WATCHES

Originally aviator or pilot watches were used by pilots and astronauts, but they were later adopted by many people who see them as gadgets or a fashion statement. They are usually large, simple and resistant.

- Resistant in very high or low temperatures.
- Refined or rugged design.
- Large, easily readable display.
- Displays time for multiple locations.

FASHION WATCHES

Fashion watches tell time, but they are viewed more as jewelry or accessory than as a functional gadget. They usually make a strong fashion statement through one of the multiple available and sometimes bold designs. Their style can vary from classy and sophisticated to playful, casual and non-conformist. Fashion watches stand out of the crowd through distinctive shapes and colors and often limited functionality.

- Can have jewelry.
- Sometimes made to look like a bracelet.
- Colorful and in a variety of shapes and designs.
- Children watches are playful and with cartoon characters.

RETRO WATCHES

Retro watches are designed to remind of or evoke a certain decade. They imitate or are inspired from the style and designed used in the past. They range from simple and made from cheap materials to historical luxury watches. They match a certain perceived fashion look.

- Can be any shape or color
- Different armbands made from a variety of materials
- Sometimes engraved or with icons or symbols.
- Can be analog, but also digital.
