7 REASONS NOT TO MISS THE CHAMPIONS LEAGUE FINAL

Should Messi score against Juventus in Berlin, he will become the first player to find the net in three UEFA Champions League finals

You will live a unique moment in football history by taking part in the 60th anniversary of the Champions League.

Should Juventus lose against Barcelona, they will become the first team to be defeated in four UEFA Champions League finals after previous reverses in 1997, 1998 and 2003.

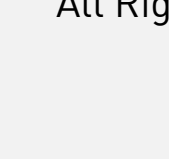

This is the first time ever the 2 clubs meet in a Champions League Final.

Both teams fight for the treble this season, with Barcelona striving for its 2nd treble. Only 4 teams got it in the last 15 years: Manchester United (1999), FC Barcelona (2009), Inter Milan (2010) and Bayern Munich (2013).

Last time Juventus clashed with Barca was in 2003, in the Champions League quarter-finals. The same year, 2003, was the last time Juventus got to the final. 12 years later, the Italians are back!

You will see 2 teams with 2 different styles of play: FC Barcelona with the greatest attacking trio: Messi, Neymar and Suarez; and Juventus, a team of veterans with a powerful defensive play.
