

I Will Teach You To Be Rich

How To Make Money Fast

(make up to $100-$500+ today, $1,000-$5,000 this month, & 10,000+ this year)

If you need to learn how to make money fast, the last thing you want is to do meaningless tasks for low pay, learn a new skill that could take months, or spend money out-of-pocket to make your first dollar.

Here I will teach you:

How to make $100-$500+ today (without leaving your couch)

Negotiate your bills

Most of the companies today don't want you to know this secret, and because of this dirty secret, most of these companies rely on thousands of people to zombie walk through their payment process. Did you know that with a quick phone call, you can negotiate your bills?

With a quick phone call, you can get many fixed costs lowered, like:

Credit card and fees

Gym fees

Cable fees

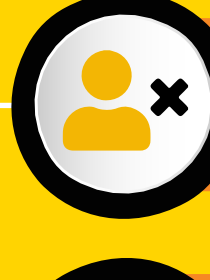

Cell phone fees

Car insurance

By calling these companies and having one conversation, you can potentially put a lot of money back in your pocket... Just remember two magic phrases:

"Times are tough."

"Is there anything you can do for me?"

Negotiate your rent

I bet rent is one of your most significant expenses, but with one phone call, you can reduce your rent by $100/month or $1,200 annually. But what can you offer in exchange to lower your rent? Here are the few things your landlord will happily consider:

Prepay months in advance

Sign an extended lease

Promise not to smoke in the apartment

Promise not to keep cats even if they're allowed

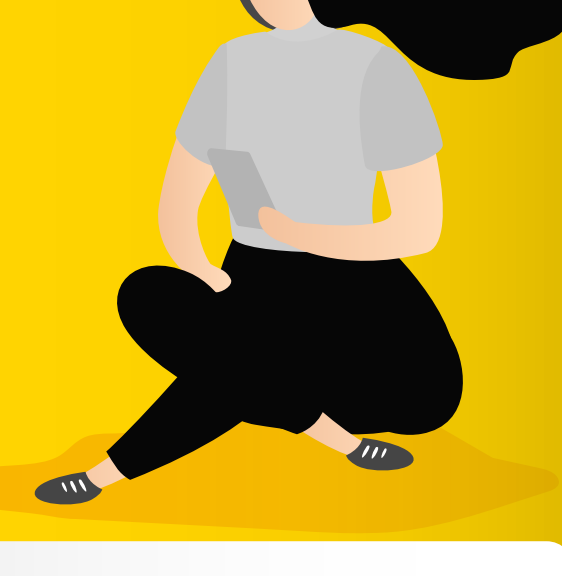

Make a deal for referrals if they have low occupancy

Offer to give up your parking space if you don't have a car

Offer to extend the termination notice from 30 days to 60 or 90 days

Make money fast selling on eBay, Craigslist, Facebook Marketplace (or any other site)

Sell things on eBay, Facebook, Craigslist, or any other online marketplace. I've personally made over $1,000. We ALL have stuff laying around the house that we can sell. Maybe...

You have a pair of nice shoes in your closet that you never wear

You have some old baseball cards collecting dust

You recently upgraded your laptop and don't know what to do with your old one

Negotiate your salary

I love salary negotiation! This is a proven way to earn more money through a single conversation. It's essentially quick money that — unlike taking surveys or selling your body to medical studies — gives you a LOT of money over many years.

With these simple steps, you can make salary negotiation easy:

Get the range of your salary based on jobs & location using sites like payscale.com, salary.com, or glassdoor.com

Give your boss a heads up that you are preparing to discuss salary with him or her

Use The Briefcase Technique — Make a proposal document that shows your boss you actually have a plan on how you can add more value moving forward. Nobody does this and it will leave your boss highly impressed

Change your job

Should you change jobs? Change Industries? Or should you take risks that will result in more money? Using Bezos's Regret Minimization Framework:

Ask yourself — Which will you regret more 20 years from now:

Staying in your current situation or trying something new and failing?

And remember, the more responsibility you have, the more money you can command.

Find your first freelance client

There is a limit on how much you can save, but there is no limit on how much you can earn.

Having said that, freelancing is a skill. That means you can get better at it over time. And once you get your first paying client, it'll be easier to get more clients and make more money.

Look at what you've already got. 95% of jobs can translate into some sort of side gig. Ask yourself:

What do I enjoy?

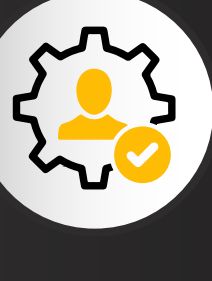

What do I do with my free time?

What do people ask me to do because I'm so good at it?

And repeat this over and over: People pay for solutions, not your skills. You can break it down into two areas:

SKILLS.

These are things you have the expertise and knowledge in (e.g., languages, coding, copywriting).

Last step: It's time to find potential clients. Reach out directly. Lots of people set up a Twitter account and wait for the world to come to them. DON'T DO THAT. Once you've identified your potential client, email them directly.

PASSIONS.

These are things you love to do in your free time (e.g., playing musical instruments, volunteering to take care of animals, genealogy work).

Start an online business

If you want to make a lot of money without taking orders from someone, then starting a business is a must. It's all about stepping out of your comfort zone and taking calculated risks. Starting an online business is the best and easiest way to make more money. Remember:

Identifying worthwhile ideas — If you have any profitable ideas and want to start a business, then online is the best way to do it.

Identifying profitable business ideas is a skill — You can learn the frameworks and psychology of deciding which ideas will work and which ideas are not worth your time.

It's a great way to find freedom & self-worth.
